

I am absolutely opposed to the proposal to allow further consolidation of media ownership. Although advocates of earlier consolidation claimed that it would promote diversification of programming, this proved false. In the Kansas City market, the variety of programming has diminished. Perhaps unexplainably, the technical quality of many FM station signals has deteriorated, also to the point that the quality is no better or even below that of AM stations. I encourage the FCC to reject this scheme.